

Treasure hunt kids

I come in pairs,
I keep your feet
warm.

Carry me to a picnic, and I'll
carry everything
for you.

Rest your head on me when you're
dreaming.

It's really cold in here. make sure
you don't leave my
door open.

Look at me to see
your identical
twin.

I'll keep you dry
on a stormy day.
Remember to put
me down when
you're back inside.

Answer the door
when you hear me
dinging.

I have lots of
stories to tell
you, but first you
have to open me
up.

Tick tock.
Look at me to check you're on time.

Dishes go into me
dirty, and come
out perfectly
clean.

Rub me in your hands and I'll get all bubbly, and
make them clean.

Open me when it's
hot, and close me
when it's raining

I'm never wicked, but I do have a wick.
I'll keep things
bright, and
smelling nice.

Cows love eating
this blade. Good thing this one's
not made out of metal.

I've got buttons,
and numbers, and
love to zap.

Treasure hunt teens

I'm full of paper
and ink, but I'm not a book.

We have spines,
but no bones.

My hands spin
round and round,
but I never get
anywhere.

While you get dry,
I get wetter

I have teeth but no
mouth.

I go up and down
but never move.

I am filled with keys, but I cannot
unlock anything.

I must be popular, because I am filled with
dates.

I have a ring, but
no finger.

I have a single
eye, but cannot
see.

I am full of holes,
but can still hold
water.

I am tall when I'm young, and short
when I'm old.

I have a head, and a tail. But no arms
or legs.

I can't be used
until I've been cracked.

Eat one a day to keep the doctor
away.
